

■ Parents “Right to Know”

All Title I schools are required to employ only highly qualified teachers and instructional paraprofessionals. If at any time your child is taught by a non-highly teacher, English Estates administration will notify all families.

In addition, Parents have the “Right to know”:

- Request whether your child’s teacher(s) and/or paraprofessional(s) meet the state certification requirements for the grade levels and subject areas in which they provide instruction.
- Request whether a teacher and/or paraprofessional is teaching under emergency or other provisional status where state qualification or licensing criteria have been waived.
- Request information on the baccalaureate degree major of a teacher and/or paraprofessional and any other graduate certification or degree held by the teacher and/or paraprofessional, and the field of discipline of the certification or degree.
